

INTERNATIONAL NOTARY PUBLISHER'S AFFIDAVIT

COMES NOW, the undersigned International Notary, serving as the Notary Presenter for the Human Rights Defenders for the Government of The United States of America, hereinafter Notary/Publisher, who certifies that the Proclamation of Involuntary Dissolution, naming multiple Respondents on behalf of Claimants Marshall and Carolyn Rinckenberger, was published under PUBLIC NOTICES in the American Herald newspaper, and on Scribd under Legal Forms, on the following dates:

The first publishing in the American Herald shows a date of 9/13/2015, which also shows as the date of the second publication, the third, and the Default Notice. Notices were filed timely as edits to the first publication, but Notary did not realize at the time that the edit feature does not show the progression in publish dates, holding any future edits to the initial publish date. Therefore, the Default Notice was published again on the 19th with its own publish date. For that reason, it is shown herein as published twice on successive days.

The first publishing on Scribd.com was dated September 5, 2015. This publication was made following the return of the second mailing by USPS as detailed elsewhere, and before the preparation of the American Herald for Notary Publication, to ensure that the second mailing was served timely. The next publishing was done on September 10, 2015 for the third mailing and included the first mailing to bring things current on the site. This is why the dates appear out of sequence. The Notice of Default (fourth notice) was published on September 19, 2015 giving notice of seven (7) days for response.

WITNESS my hand and official seal.

OVERVIEW

CERTIFICATION OF MAILING CHAIN OF TITLE

The undersigned International Notary (Affiant), certifies that on the dates set forth herein he personally verified that the documents listed on the INDEX PAGE were duplicated for mailing to the Respondents, packaged as stated, sealed and mailed according to the conditions set forth herein. On the 19th of August, 2015, said documents were placed in envelopes bearing postage from The United States of America in the amount of +21 Continental Dollars Stamps, addressed to Respondents, sealed, and mailed with USPS certified tracking labels.

The documents were tracked and received by Respondents. Tracking information for August 19th was as follows:

Respondent	Date Mailed	Tracking Number	Date Received
Curt Norbert Trisko	8/19/2015	RA680705277US	August 24, 2015 , 9:44 am
Rebecca F. Schiller		"
Sarah J. B. Adam		"	August 24, 2015 , 10:20 am

David Webb	8/19/2015	7015 0920 0001 9320 6360	August 24, 2015 , 11:40 am

There was one exception... that being Sheriff Donald Asmus and his named Deputies. This first mail is presumed to have been delivered First Class mail since no tracking was recorded and the documents were not returned to Notary by USPS. To be absolutely certain that service was effected, this mailing was subsequently sent by email on September 1, 2015 to don.asmus@co.todd.mn.us and also re-routed by USPS Priority Tracking #9505 5129 2882 5246 0045 31 on September 3, 2015, and was shown to be delivered on September 8, 2015 , 10:16 am.

The second mailing was prepared as above on August 27th except that certified tracking labels were changed to registered labels. This second mailing was intercepted and returned to Notary on August 31st by the local USPS Postmaster who refused to deliver mail "initiated within the United States" without USPS postage, presumably because the mail was registered instead of certified. Details are reported here (<http://americanherald.org/?p=261>). Following this interruption of service by delayed mail, a week was lost and second notice was rerouted on September 3, 2015 under First Class USPS postage as a courtesy... but then was published on September 5th at <https://www.scribd.com/doc/280023881/Rinkenberger-Staples-Third-Mailing-Post> . It has since been published on the American Herald at http://americanherald.org/?page_id=275&id=4 . See International Notary Publisher's Affidavit for details.

The third mailing was executed on September 10th this time sent USPS First Class as a courtesy, and again published at <https://www.scribd.com/doc/280023881/Rinkenberger-Staples-Third-Mailing-Post> and subsequently at http://americanherald.org/?page_id=275&id=4 .

Fourth Notice... Notice of Default was not sent USPS. It was published on Scribd and in the American Herald at the links indicated above. As with the other Notices, seven (7) days were allowed for Respondents to answer to the charges, but no response was received.

NOTICE OF SUMMARY JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT

The documents were presented a total of four times, at least seven (7) days apart, allowing ample time for Respondents to respond and come to honor. Human Rights Violations are serious charges that demand a response. Unfortunately for the Respondents, their no-response-of- silence is a response that demands a verdict of guilty by default. Respondents' refusal to answer is viewed by every court jurisdiction as tacit consent and acceptance. Based on the judgment already entered into the record by the Human Rights Tribunal and presented in this process, and the silent refusal to answer, displayed throughout the Notary Presentment, the Notary directs this summary judgment back to the court of record for execution.

INVESTIGATIVE REPORT

Date: August 18, 2015

Case No.: F27FA3F2-188C-4A87-84C5-E0B0A203D197

On May 19, 2015, the Claimant's, Marshall R. and Carolyn I. Rinckenberger (hereinafter "Rinckenbergers"), case was assigned to Daniel Douglas Smock (hereinafter "Agent"), a Human Rights Defender recognized by his Government, The United States of America, to act in the capacity of an Agent and prepare and file a claim for the Rinckenberger's benefit detailing the events of a Forced Eviction, which led to a number of Human Rights Violations being perpetrated against the Rinckenberger's in the stealing of their home, property, business and ability to provide a livelihood, in which a claim was filed and submitted to the International Human Rights Tribunal where a judgment and order was handed down, finding in favor of the Rinckenbergers, which further included a "Cease and Desist" order to take place, and to turn back-over the Rinckenberger's property in its entirety. A Certified Apostille was issued from The United States of America to the Secretary of Minnesota State, a corporation, informing them that such International Order now existed. In the days that followed a number of people seemingly are ignoring the Apostille and furthermore continuing to violate the Rinckenbergers with continued Human Rights violations against the Rinckenbergers after having been served copy of the International Judgment and Order.

On October 31, 2014, the Rinkenbergers were forced off their property by John H. Scherer, (hereinafter "Scherer"), Who supervised such issued order under Donald P. Anderson, (hereinafter "Anderson"), for case number 77-CV-14-876 of 7th District Court of Todd County, a corporation entity of Minnesota.

Todd County Sheriff Donald Asmus dispatched Deputy's to the Rinkenberger's place of residence and deprived them of their home including personal, business property as well, such as Rinkenberger's credit cards, check book, driver's license, and all of the farm equipment and vehicles, not having been included in any type of action or under any such court orders for seizure of this type. Other deputies who involved themselves Jon Barber (hereinafter "Barber"), and Corey Heid (hereinafter "Heid"), and Mike Allen (hereinafter "Allen"), and Gene Ziegenhagen (hereinafter "Ziegenhagen") in conducting a sheriff's auction of the Rinkenberger's property including the forced eviction.

INVESTIGATON

The Agent's analysis began with the review of the claim to the Human Rights Tribunal by the Rinkenbergers, including the review and Judgment and Order having been handed down, and further review of the Rinkenberger's case file including all supporting documented evidence and affidavits of claim. This led to further investigation by way of the internet and review of the continued, human rights violations being ignored, by all parties having been named above against the Rinkenberger's, for willful failure to further harming the Rinkenbergers for no apparent reason other than the total lack of disrespect for any caring about peoples human rights while working as public servants.

This investigation has confirmed that which the judgment and order are being totally and deliberately ignored and the Rinkenberger's are still being denied the ability to go home and are now considered homeless.

While serving in a capacity as a Human Rights Defender, this agent finds numerous individuals under arrest for the following Universal Declaration violations under; Article 1, 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 12, 13, 17, 19, 20, 23, 25, 26, and Article 30 of The Universal Declaration of Human Rights, Article 11 of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.

AGENT PERSPECTIVE AND SUMMARY

It is well known that institutions and corporations, over time, will turn oppressive, corrupt and even violent to sustain themselves. Often overlooked is that the conduct of institutions and corporations are a reflection of the society within which they operate.

What are we to think when we discover Asmus, a Sheriff, who commits an illegal act, one of which that's within international jurisdiction, and further who has breached his own oath of sworn statement to "protect" the very community of which he lives? Or when we realize those responsible for the deputy's training and supervision, fall short of having poor training with no apparent respect towards international laws – nothing to correct the bad behavior posed by each to follow a "private company banking administration" such as the Todd County District Court? How do we reconcile the knowledge that men within law enforcement will slander the reputation of their neighbors, perhaps trained to do so, by the private entities that pay them?

The time is now to insist that institutions and corporations provide benefit to the human family, before themselves, or be dismantled or dissolved. It is time to require truth and transparency in both business and personal dealings and it is time to demand honor and integrity from those that purport to serve the public.

It is with these thoughts in mind that we now turn to Human Rights violations.

HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS

The Agent feels that the evidence compiled, submitted and discussed, strongly supports the following interpretations for Human Rights violations perpetrated against the Rinkenbergers and respectfully submits these interpretations to the Human Rights Tribunal for consideration: Further noting that all listed above named are included equally –

CASE # HRT-F27FA3F2-188C-4A87-84C5-E0B0A203D197

JUDGMENT

Comes now, a Judgment and Order by the Human Rights Tribunal,

WHEREAS, the tort claimant has claimed within the evidence submitted to this tribunal that Federal Housing Finance Agency and FREDDIE MAC/ WELLS FARGO and SHILLER AND ADAM, P.A. and Attorney Chris Norbert Trisko (#392753) and Judge: Douglas P. Anderson and Todd County Sheriff: Donald Asmus (hereinafter tortfeasor) that the claim on the property located at 28120 County Road 66 Staples MN 56479 is a false claim by the tortfeasor, and

WHEREAS, the tortfeasor is determined to be Federal Housing Finance Agency and SHILLER AND ADAM, P.A. and Attorney Chris Norbert Trisko (#392753), Northern Trust Corporation, and the beneficiaries, being the citizens of the United States, and

WHEREAS, in accordance with the evidence that the promissory note was deposited into an account of the original bank, in the name of the original bank, placed on the bank ledger as an asset, (not a debit) and a check was thereby written in the amount of the promissory note and handed to the seller by the original bank, and

WHEREAS, upon further investigation by the Human Rights Committee, that the tortfeasor is not only Federal Housing Finance Agency, but the effectively connected income derived from the promissory note has been connected to citizens of the United States through the Northern Trust Corporation thereby violating the promissory note contract that the tort claimant had with the original bank by claiming interest thereby enjoying unjust enrichment, and

WHEREAS, the tortfeasors, through their trustees are publicly signing agreements, and privately violating them, to grab more property and interest for the beneficiaries, the citizens of the United States, and

WHEREAS, the efforts of the tortfeasors to maliciously cloud a title, commit a fraud before the court through its trustees and agents, making false and misleading statements, and tarnish the reputation of the tort claimant by implementing a forced eviction, are in violation of:

Article 25 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights:

- (1) Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his control.

And,

Article 17 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

- (1) Everyone has the right to own property alone as well as in association with others.
- (2) No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his property.

And,

What is the Human Right to Freedom from Forced Eviction?

The practice of forced eviction -- the involuntary removal of persons, families and groups from their homes and communities -- exacerbates global problems of inadequate housing and homelessness. Forced evictions are human rights violations! Reinforcing the right to housing and freedom from forced evictions are universal human rights standards defined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, CEDAW, the International Covenants and other widely adhered to international human rights treaties and Declarations -- powerful tools that must be put to use in realizing the human right to freedom from forced evictions!
