Results of Trafficking in Persons by the aforementioned respondents described herein within each Article of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights;

Article 1:

All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in a spirit of brotherhood.

Violations of Article 1 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 1 in the fact that the spirit of brotherhood is intended to be implemented under full disclosure, any deception violates that endowment.

Article 2:

Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration, without distinction of any kind, such as race, colour, sex, language, religion political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status. Furthermore, no distinction shall be made on the basis of the political, jurisdictional or international status of the country or territory to which a person belongs, whether it be independent, trust, non-self-governing or under any other limitation of sovereignty.

Violations of Article 2 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 2 due to the fact that a secret society is discriminating against all non-members of its Masonic Order in order to fulfill its own self-imposed mission. Supporting mission of specific groups is intended to be voluntary on the part of the benefactor.

Article 3:

Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person.

Violations of Article 3 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking of persons violates Article 3 due to the fact that deceptive transfer of the person violates life, liberty and security of person. No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all their forms.

Article 4:

Violations of Article 4 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking of persons violates Article 4 due to the fact that the person is held in perpetual debt bondage within the United States by members of the Masonic Order from birth until death of the victim.

Article 5:

No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

Violations of Article 5 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking of persons is a condition of cruel and inhuman and degrading treatment especially if the surety is not told of the trafficking condition which causes perpetual confusion which results in torture of the mind.

Article 6:

Everyone has the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law.

Violations of Article 6 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking of persons violates Article 6 due to the fact that the person has been compromised into false representation of its character which results into living a lie from birth to death. Under the condition of trafficking in persons no law can exist.

Article 7:

All are equal before the law and are entitled without any discrimination to equal protection of the law. All are entitled to equal protection against any discrimination in violation of this Declaration and against any incitement to such discrimination.

Violations of Article 7 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 7 due to the fact that a secret society is discriminating against all non-members of its Masonic Order in order to fulfill its own self-imposed mission. Supporting mission of specific groups is intended to be voluntary on the part of the benefactor. Further, the American Bar Association has hijacked the law in order to hide the trafficking in persons.

Article 8:

Everyone has the right to an effective remedy by the competent national tribunals for acts violating the fundamental rights granted him by the constitution or by law.

Violation of Article 8 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 8 due to the fact that the American Bar Association refuses to hold a public trial or convene a national tribunal to hide the fact that the persons in all cases are hereby trafficked.

Article 9:

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest, detention or exile.

Violation of Article 9 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 9 due to the fact that the person is under perpetual and arbitrary arrest, detention and exile from birth to death.

Article 10:

Everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him.

Violations of Article 10 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 10 due to the fact that the American Bar Association has never held a public trial since its inception.

Article 11:

(1) Everyone charged with a penal offence has the right to be presumed innocent until proved guilty according to law in a public trial at which he has had all the guarantees necessary for his defense.

(2) No one shall be held guilty of any penal offence on account of any act or omission which did not constitute a penal offence, under national or international law, at the time when it was committed. Nor shall a heavier penalty be imposed than the one that was applicable at the time the penal offence was committed.

Violations of Article 11 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 11 section (1) and (2) due to the fact that all persons under the title of U.S. citizen cannot receive a public trial so there is no defense nor can the existence of the person be divulged into and under national or international law otherwise be exposed as a trafficked person.

Article 12:

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary interference with his privacy, family, home or correspondence, nor to attacks upon his honour and reputation. Everyone has the right to the protection of the law against such interference or attacks.

Violations of Article 12 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 12 due to the fact a trafficked person cannot receive the right of privacy, family, home, honor or reputation otherwise the traffickers run the risk of being exposed as traffickers of persons. If the person is found to exist under national or international law, chain of title is questioned as to how the person became to be known as a U.S. citizen.

Article 13:

- (1) Everyone has the right to freedom of movement and residence within the borders of each State.
- (2) Everyone has the right to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country.

Violations of Article 13 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 13 due to the fact that the person is under a perpetual identity theft and therefore a passport would be considered under international law as a fraudulent document when presented to other countries.

Article 14:

- (1) Everyone has the right to seek and to enjoy in other countries asylum from persecution.
- (2) This right may not be invoked in the case of prosecutions genuinely arising from non-political crimes or from acts contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Violations of Article 14 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 14 due to the fact that the trafficked person is not recognized in international law and therefore cannot receive the benefit of Article 14 due to vetting discrepancies.

Article 15:

- (1) Everyone has the right to a nationality.
- (2) No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his nationality nor denied the right to change his nationality.

Violations of Article 15 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking of persons violates Article 15 due to the fact that person under a trafficking condition can never obtain a real nationality.

Article 16:

- (1) Men and women of full age, without any limitation due to race, nationality or religion, have the right to marry and to found a family. They are entitled to equal rights as to marriage, during marriage and at its dissolution.
- (2) Marriage shall be entered into only with the free and full consent of the intending spouses.
- (3) The family is the natural and fundamental group unit of society and is entitled to protection by society and the State.

Violations of Article 16 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 16 due to the fact that a trafficked person are not properly nor accurately recognized under international law and therefore a family can also be classified anything other than a family which exposes the trafficked person to military attack; thereby giving the military immunity from human rights violations by classifying the trafficked person as collateral damage.

Article 17:

- (1) Everyone has the right to own property alone as well as in association with others.
- (2) No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his property.

Violations of Article 17 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking of persons violates Article 17 (1) and (2) due to the fact that the trafficked person cannot own property so therefore is arbitrarily deprived of any property from birth to death.

Article 18:

Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion; this right includes freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in teaching, practice, worship and observance.

Violations of Article 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking of persons violates Article 18 due to the fact that trafficked persons do not have the right of thought, conscience and religion nor can the trafficked person exercise any such right.

Article 19:

Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.

Violations of Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 19 due to the fact that a trafficked person cannot exercise any right of opinion or expression in any manner.

Article 20:

- (1) Everyone has the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and association.
- (2) No one may be compelled to belong to an association.

Violations of Article 20 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 20 due to the fact that a peaceful assembly can be classified as a gang or domestic terrorist group by the traffickers at any time.

Article 21:

- (1) Everyone has the right to take part in the government of his country, directly or through freely chosen representatives.
- (2) Everyone has the right to equal access to public service in his country.
- (3) The will of the people shall be the basis of the authority of government; this shall be expressed in periodic and genuine elections which shall be by universal and equal suffrage and shall be held by secret vote or by equivalent free voting procedures.

Violations of Article 21 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 21, (1),(2) and (3), due to the fact genuine elections cannot be held within the United States under an electoral college condition wherein all elections are facades.

Article 22:

Everyone, as a member of society, has the right to social security and is entitled to realization, through national effort and international cooperation and in accordance with the organization and resources of each State, of the economic, social and cultural rights indispensable for his dignity and the free development of his personality.

Violations of Article 22 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 22 due to the fact that within the United States, the social security number is the vehicle by which persons are trafficked offshore and returned to the States of the Union under the foreign title of U.S. citizen and Masonic Order Temple property perpetually. Further, the trafficked person is classified as an enemy of the state under trading with the enemies act of 1939 as amended from 1917.

Article 23:

- (1) Everyone has the right to work, to free choice of employment, to just and favourable conditions of work and to protection against unemployment.
- (2) Everyone, without any discrimination, has the right to equal pay for equal work.
- (3) Everyone who works has the right to just and favourable remuneration ensuring for himself and his family an existence worthy of human dignity, and supplemented, if necessary, by other means of social protection.
- (4) Everyone has the right to form and to join trade unions for the protection of his interests.

Violations of Article 23 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 23 due to the fact that within the United States, if a trafficked person misses work, suffers injury, or any other sickness for two months, the trafficked person suffers homelessness, mounting debt, loss of family and friends and loss of children. There are no provisions within the United States to prevent violations of Article 23 within the United States.

Article 24:

Everyone has the right to rest and leisure, including reasonable limitation of working hours and periodic holidays with pay.

Violations of Article 24 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 24 due to the fact that a class system has been put in place within the United States wherein those trafficked persons that assist with the crimes of trafficking in persons, they are rewarded with rest and leisure, limitation of working hours and periodic holidays with pay, otherwise suffer the consequences of Article 24.

Article 25:

- (1) Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his control.

(2) Motherhood and childhood are entitled to special care and assistance. All children, whether born in or out of wedlock, shall enjoy the same social protection.

Violations of Article 25 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 25 due to the fact that there is an epidemic of abducting children within the State of the Union under the control of the Masonic Order which is the subject matter of this case.

Article 26:

(1) Everyone has the right to education. Education shall be free, at least in the elementary and fundamental stages. Elementary education shall be compulsory. Technical and professional education shall be made generally available and higher education shall be equally accessible to all on the basis of merit.

(2) Education shall be directed to the full development of the human personality and to the strengthening of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms. It shall promote understanding, tolerance and friendship among all nations, racial or religious groups, and shall further the activities of the United Nations for the maintenance of peace.

(3) Parents have a prior right to choose the kind of education that shall be given to their children.

Violations of Article 26 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 26, (1), (2) and (3) due to the fact that the history of this country has been erased and replaced with Great Britain's approved history and therefore free education cannot exist within the United States.

Article 27:

(1) Everyone has the right freely to participate in the cultural life of the community, to enjoy the arts and to share in scientific advancement and its benefits.

(2) Everyone has the right to the protection of the moral and material interests resulting from any scientific, literary or artistic production of which he is the author.

Violations of Article 27 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 27, (1) and (2) due to the divide by and between the Masonic Order and the trafficked persons.

Article 28:

Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.

Violations of Article 28 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 28 due to the fact that the act of trafficking in persons is a violation of the international order itself.

Article 29:

(1) Everyone has duties to the community in which alone the free and full development of his personality is possible.

(2) In the exercise of his rights and freedoms, everyone shall be subject only to such limitations as are determined by law solely for the purpose of securing due recognition and respect for the rights and freedoms of others and of meeting the just requirements of morality, public order and the general welfare in a democratic society.

(3) These rights and freedoms may in no case be exercised contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Violations of Article 29 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 29, (1), (2), and (3) due to the fact that a trafficked person cannot develop a healthy personality under a deceptive system of continual layers of lies and an altered history wherein the soul and the mind lives in constant turmoil, nor can a democratic society ever be achieved.

Article 30:

Nothing in this Declaration may be interpreted as implying for any State, group or person any right to engage in any activity or to perform any act aimed at the destruction of any of the rights and freedoms set forth herein.

Violations of Article 30 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Trafficking in persons violates Article 30 due to the fact trafficking in persons is aimed at the destruction of any rights or freedoms set forth herein.
