BE IT ENACTED, by the United States, in Congress assembled, THE CONTINENTAL ARMY, NAVY AND MARINE ACT OF 2017, IS HEREBY RE-ESTABLISHED, PUBLISHED AND ACKNOWLEDGED on this 22nd day, in the year of Yahweh, 6019,

The consideration of the articles of war being resumed, the United States, in Congress assembled agreed to the same:

Rules and Regulations

Whereas the U.S. Military has pledged itself to the United Nations thereby leaving these United States within The United States of America to fend and protect herself from foreign enemies.

And whereas the ruling political parties known as the Republicans and Democrats have allowed the foreign troops of Islam implementing the ancient doctrine of Hijrah against these United States within The United States of America,

And Hostilities have been actually commenced in various city-states around the country perpetrated against civilians thereby committing war crimes perpetrated by Islam's Military,

And due to the indifference displayed by the Republican and Democratic Parties to the welfare of the next generation, the North American National Party hereby resurrects the Continental Army, the Continental Navy and the Continental Marines for the purpose of defense against these forces surrounding these United States within The United States of America, and

REGULATIONS-PENALTIES OF THE ACT

Enlisted. The first oath, voted on 14 June 1775 as part of the act creating the Continental Army, read:

"I ____ have, this day, voluntarily enlisted myself, as a soldier, in the American continental army, for one year, unless sooner discharged: And I do bind myself to conform, in all instances, to such rules and regulations, as are, or shall be, established for the government of the said Army." The original wording was effectively replaced by Section 3, Article 1, of the Articles of War approved by Congress on 20 September 1776, which specified that the oath of enlistment read:

AS AMENDED TO:

"I ____ swear (or affirm as the case may be) to be true to The United States of America, and to serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies opposers whatsoever; and to observe and obey the orders of the United States in Congress assembled, and the orders of the Generals and officers set over me by them."

Officers: Continental Congress passed two versions of this oath of office, applied to military and civilian national officers. The first, on 21 October 1776, read: "I _____, do acknowledge the Thirteen United States of America, namely, New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, to be free, independent, and sovereign states, and declare, that the people thereof owe no allegiance or obedience to George the third, king of Great Britain; and I renounce, refuse and abjure any allegiance or obedience to him; and I do swear that I will, to the utmost of my power, support, maintain, and defend the said United States against the said king, George the third, and his heirs and successors, and his and their abettors, assistants and adherents; and will serve the said United States in the office of _____, which I now hold, and in any other office which I may hereafter hold by their appointment, or under their authority, with fidelity and honour, and according to the best of my skill and understanding. So help me God."

The revised version, voted 3 February 1778, read

AS AMENDED TO:

"I, _____ do acknowledge The United States of America to be free, independent and sovereign States that form an independent country under the Law of Nations known as The United States of America, and declare that the people thereof owe no allegiance or obedience to any other country, and I do swear (or affirm) that I will, to the utmost of my power, support, maintain and defend these United States, against all enemies, foreign or from without or from within, and will serve these United States in the office of _____ which I now hold, with fidelity, according to the best of my skill and understanding. So help me God."

Resolved, That the following Rules and Orders be attended to, and observed by such forces as are or may hereafter be raised for the purposes aforesaid.

- Article I.

That every officer who shall be retained, and every soldier who shall serve in the Continental Army, shall, at the time of his acceptance of his commission or enlistment, subscribe these rules and regulations. And that the officers and soldiers, already of that army, shall also, as soon as may be, subscribe the same; from the time of which subscription every officer and soldier, shall be bound by those regulations. But if any of the officers or soldiers, now of the said army, do not subscribe these rules and regulations, then they may be retained in the said army, subject to the rules and regulations under which they entered into the service, or be discharged from the service, at the option of the Commander in chief of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

- Article II.

It is earnestly recommended to all officers and soldiers, diligently to attend Divine Service; and all officers and soldiers who shall behave indecently or irreverently at any place of Divine Worship, shall, if commissioned officers, be brought before a court-martial. there to be publicly and severely reprimanded by the Governor; if non-commissioned officers or soldiers, every person so offending, shall, for his first offence, forfeit a weeks pay, to be deducted out of his next pay; for the second offence, he shall not only forfeit a like sum, but be confined for twenty-four hours, and for every like offence, shall suffer and pay in like manner; which money so forfeited, shall be applied to the use of the sick soldiers of the troop or company to which the offender belongs.

- Article III.

Whatsoever non-commissioned officer or soldier shall use any profane oath or execration against The United States of America, shall incur the penalties expressed in the second article; and if a commissioned officer be thus guilty of profane cursing or swearing against The United States of America, he shall forfeit and pay for each and every such offence, one weeks pay, lawful money.

- Article IV.

Any officer or soldier, who shall behave himself with contempt or disrespect towards the General or Generals, or Commanders in chief of the Continental Forces, or shall speak false words, tending to his or their hurt or dishonor, shall be punished according to the nature of his offence, by the judgment of a general court-martial.

- Article V.

Any officer or soldier, who shall begin, excite, cause, or join in any mutiny or sedition, in the regiment, troop, or company to which he belongs, or in any other regiment, troop or company of the Continental Forces, either by land or sea, or in any party, post, detachment, or guard, on any pretence whatsoever, shall suffer such punishment, as by a general court-martial shall be ordered.

- Article VI.

Any officer, non-commissioned officer, or soldier, who being present at any mutiny or sedition, does not use his utmost endeavors to suppress the same, or coming to the knowledge of any mutiny, or intended mutiny, does not, without delay, give information thereof to the commanding officer, shall be punished by order of a general court-martial, according to the nature of his offence.

For this document does not affect the validity of any previous act in a negative manner by the United States, in Congress assembled nor does it make those previous acts null and void for not having this wording in the titles and enactment clauses. For this document is evidence of a complete structure working in harmony with one another and is evidence of the expansion of a Government into an independent sphere.

- Article VII.

Any officer or soldier, who shall strike his superior officer, or draw, or offer to draw, or shall lift up any weapon, or offer any violence against him, being in the execution of his office, on any pretence whatsoever, or shall disobey any lawful commands of his superior officer, shall suffer such punishment as shall, according to the nature of his offence, be ordered by the sentence of a general court-martial.

- Article VIII.

Any non-commissioned officer, or soldier, who shall desert, or without leave of his commanding officer, absent himself from the troop or company to which he belongs, or from any detachment of the same, shall, upon being convicted thereof, be punished according to the nature of his offence, at the discretion of a general court-martial.

- Article IX.

Whatsoever officer, or soldier, shall be convicted of having advised or persuaded any other officer or soldier, to desert, shall suffer such punishment, as shall be ordered by the sentence of a general court-martial.

- Article X.

All officers, of what condition so ever, shall have power to part and quell all quarrels, frays, and disorders, though the persons concerned, should belong to another regiment, troop, or company; and either order officers to be arrested, or non-commissioned officers, or soldiers, to be confined and imprisoned, until their proper superior officers shall be acquainted therewith: and whoever shall refuse to obey such officer, (though of an inferior rank,) or shall draw his sword upon him, shall be punished at the discretion of a general court-martial.

- Article XI.

No officer or soldier shall use any reproachful or provoking speeches or gestures to another, nor shall presume to send a challenge to any person to fight a duel: And whoever shall, knowingly and willingly, suffer any person whatsoever to go forth to fight a duel, or shall second, promote, or carry any challenge, shall be deemed as a principal; and whatsoever officer or soldier shall upbraid another for refusing a challenge, shall also be considered as a challenger; and all such offenders, in any of these or such like cases, shall be punished at the discretion of a general court-martial.

- Article XII.

Every officer, commanding in quarters or on a march, shall keep good order, and, to the utmost of his power, redress all such abuses or disorders which may be committed by any officer or soldier under his command: If upon any complaint [being] made to him, of officers or soldiers beating, or otherwise ill-treating any person, or of committing any kind of riot, to the disquieting of the inhabitants of this Continent; he the said commander, who shall refuse or omit to see justice done on the offender or offenders, and reparation made to the party or parties injured, as far as the offender's wages shall enable him or them, shall, upon due proof thereof, be punished as ordered by a general court-martial, in such manner as if he himself had committed the crimes or disorders complained of.

- Article XIII.

A general court-martial shall consist of one officer, or depending on the severity of the crimes of the accused, shall have as many as three officers convened as a tribunal under the title of "War Crimes Tribunal". All other minor offences shall be overseen by the Company Commander at the recommendation of a non-commissioned officer.

employed as light infantry under the command of the chief officer in that Army.

"That the pay of the officers and privates be as follows; a captain at 20 dollars per month, a lieutenant at 13 and 1/3 dollars, a sergeant at 8 dollars, a corporal at 7 and 1/3 dollars, a drummer [or trumpeter] at 7 and 1/3 dollars, privates at 6 and 2/3 dollars; to find their own arms and clothes.

"That the form of the enlistment be in the following words. 'I have, this day, voluntarily enlisted myself as a soldier in the American Continental Army, for one year, unless sooner discharged. And I do bind myself to conform in all instances to such rules and regulations as are, or will be, established for the governments said Army.'

"Upon motion, resolved, that Mr. [George] Washington, Mr. [Philip] Schuyler, Mr. [Silas] Deane, Mr. [Thomas] Cushing and Mr. [Joseph] Howes be a committee to bring in a draft of rules and regulations for the government of the Army."

Continental Navy: Soldiers of the Sea

The first formal movement for a navy came from Rhode Island, whose State Assembly passed a resolution on August 26, 1775 instructing its delegates to Congress to introduce legislation calling "for building at the Continental expense a fleet of sufficient force, for the protection of these colonies, and for employing them in such a manner and places as will most effectively annoy our enemies...

Resolution of the Continental Congress establishing the Marine Corps - 10 November 1775

This resolution of the Continental Congress marked the establishment of the Continental Marines.

"Resolved, That two Battalions of marines be raised, consisting of one Colonel, two Lieutenant Colonels, two Majors, and other officers as usual in other regiments; and that they consist of an equal number of privates with other battalions; that particular care be taken, that no persons be appointed to office, or enlisted into said Battalions, but such as are good seamen, or so acquainted with maritime affairs as to be able to serve to advantage by sea when required: that they be enlisted and commissioned to serve for and during the present war between Great Britain and the colonies, unless dismissed by order of Congress: that they be distinguished by the names of the first and second battalions of American Marines, and that they be considered part of the number which the continental Army before Boston is ordered to consist of."

Creed of the Continental Marines

*THIS IS MY RIFLE. There are many like it but this one is mine.
My rifle is my best friend.
It is my life.
I must master it as I master my life.*

*My rifle, without me is useless.
Without my rifle, I am useless.
I must fire my rifle true.
I must shoot straighter than any enemy who is trying to kill me.
I must shoot him before he shoots me.
I will....*

*My rifle and myself know that what counts in this war is not the rounds we fire, the noise of or burst, nor the smoke we make.
We know that it is the hits that count.
We will hit....*

*My rifle is human, even as I, because it is my life.
Thus, I will learn it as a brother.
I will learn its weakness, its strength, its parts, its accessories, its sights and its barrel.
I will keep my rifle clean and ready, even as I am clean and ready.
We will become part of each other.*

*Before God I swear this creed.
My rifle and myself are the defenders of my country.
We are the masters of our enemy. We are the saviors of my life.
Oh my dead brother in war, Upon the Wind of Odin ye shall sail, and in his hall of slain in rest we wait the next men of metal, their fate, in a toast of cheer we lift the Asgard beer in song with Valkyries, we chase her oh goddess Freyja and we again in line after Meade, we wait our return to breast of our mortal mom, again with sword in hand, we again ride our sea as with and under us are other men, we never yield, we never falter, we have stood to the golden tree, We saw who we are and will always be, Norsemen is the name you seek, So come with me warrior and if need be we fight and if we die we shall seek the woe of Valhalla.*
