Section 1

Definition and terms -

- the National assembly - National assembly for the Government of The United States of America,

Section 2

The Committee of the National assembly hereby finds and declares that the Communist Party of the United States, although purportedly a political party, is in fact an instrumentality of a conspiracy to overthrow the Government of The United States of America. It constitutes an authoritarian dictatorship within a republic, demanding for itself the rights and privileges accorded to the obligations of political parties, but denying to all others the liberties guaranteed by the Articles of Confederation which is designed to perpetuate populated States in social compact and constituted.

Unlike political parties, which in social compact make laws all in agreement for public means, by the reconciliation of a wide variety of people's views, and submit those laws and benefits to the constituted assembly in social compact with the appropriate claim for the metes and bounds and seaward boundaries of The United States of America or their State respectively for approval or disapproval.

The laws and programs of the Communist Party are secretly prescribed for it by the foreign leaders of the world Communist movement. Its members have no part in determining its goals, and are not permitted to voice dissent to party objectives.

Unlike members of political parties, members of the Communist Party are recruited for indoctrination with respect to its objectives and methods, and are organized, instructed, and disciplined to carry into action slavishly the assignments given them by their hierarchical chieftains.

Unlike political parties, the Communist Party acknowledges no constitutional or statutory limitations upon its conduct or upon that of its members. The Communist Party is relatively small numerically, and gives scant indication of capacity ever to attain its ends by lawful political means. The peril inherent in its operation arises not from its numbers, but from its failure to acknowledge any limitation as to the nature of its activities, and its dedication to the proposition that the present constitutional Government of The United States of America under the Articles of Confederation and ultimately must be brought to ruin by any available means, including resort to force and violence.

Holding that doctrine, its role as the agency of a hostile foreign power renders its existence a clear present and continuing danger to the security of The United States of America.

It is the means whereby individuals are seduced into the service of the world Communist movement, trained to do its bidding, and directed and controlled in the conspiratorial performance of their revolutionary services. Therefore, the Communist Party is hereby outlawed.
